THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY,
TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese, has been the subject of much discussion, and has reached its Twelfth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are of interest to the student of the Far East, and which are not covered by the ordinary newspapers. It includes many interesting Notes and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been added, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive Notes of Travel, by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department requires special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of literature on China, etc., and to give critical reviews of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward to "Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office."

The Notes and Queries are still continuing and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points. The Correspondence column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are accepted. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is respectfully cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Dr. Chalmers, Esq., Professor Legge, and Messrs. Duffell, Watt, Stent, Phillips, Macleay, Groat, Jamieson, Fisher, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, and Pison, all well known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to. Address, "Manager, China Mail Office."

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and interesting Review."—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).
"The China Review is a very interesting and readable number. Microscopists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Pritsche, on 'The Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking,' showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Chinese Observatory at Peking, from 1844 to 1880."—Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa, by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand.
"The Review is a most generous and appreciative review of 'The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua,' and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting."—Northern Christian Advocate.
"A student and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronize."—Chrysanthemum.
"The November-December number of the China Review contains a variety of interesting, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. Herbert A. Giles on 'The New Testament in Chinese' is a treatise of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries."—Mr. E. H. Parker's.
"Short Journeys in Szechuen are continued, and a goodly instance of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. P. H. Ballou contributes a paper of some length entitled 'The Kimpere Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire,' which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of new books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which 'On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java' might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number."—H.K. Daily Press.
"The Review contains the following notice of the China Review:—The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs, and the missionary body. The Review is now assiduously cultivated, and who are several represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors."—Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. O. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by literary grace. Besides notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be of useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that 'Notes' and 'Queries' are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this offering for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance."

2. Invitations, &c. can generally be delivered within Victoria at the private houses of the addressees, either by the express of the day, or by the ordinary mail, if expressed by the sender, otherwise all correspondence is invariably delivered at the nearest place of business.

3. Boxholders who desire to send Circulars, Dividend Warrants, Invitations, &c., all of the same weight, to addresses in Hongkong, Shanghai, or the Ports of China, may deliver them to the Post Office unopened, the postage being then charged to the sender's account. Each batch must consist of at least ten.

4. Boxholders may also send Patterns to the same places in the same way. Envelopes containing Patterns may be wholly closed, if the nature of the contents be first exhibited or stated to the Postmaster General, as he may consider necessary, and approved by him. Printed Circulars may be inserted in such Pattern Packets.

PACKETS.—The public is reminded that there is no such thing as Parcel Post to Europe, &c. Much trouble and disappointment are caused by persistent attempts to send small valuable trifles through the Parcel Post, and the Postmaster General, as he may consider necessary, and approved by him. Printed Circulars may be inserted in such Pattern Packets.

Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. O. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by literary grace.
